The campaigns for positions in the city government are drawing to a close. Election Day is next Tuesday. A resume of the situation is in order What are the highlights?

A resume of the situation is in order. What are the highlights?

In the contests for the 21 positions as members of the Board of Aldermen there are but 2 few which may be considered very doubtful. Practically all of the present members running for re-election will be re-elected.

The vacancy as Alderman-at-Large in Ward 1, caused by the retirement of Alderman Frank T. McCabe, will undoubtedly be a close race. Alderman John Barwise, a candidate for re-election for the other seat as Alderman-at-Large from this ward, will be re-elected, leaving the remaining seat to be filled from four candidates. Were this contest confined to Ward 1 there might be some difficulty in predicting the winner, but with the voters of the entire city making this choice, Richard I. Lee should have considerable of a plurality over Waldo S. Weldon, who has previously been a candidate. Five years ago Mr. Lee was defeated by Major McCabe but in the interval Mr. Lee has been prominent in various civic affairs.

In Ward 2 Aldermen Schipper and unseat him in past elections.

The contest for Ward Alderman in Ward 5 is also providing some interest with Alderman Clifford B. Walker being opposed by Harry B. Cummings. It is probable that the voters in this section will retain the services of their experienced representative.

In Ward 6 there seems to be no question of the re-election of Alderman-Large Henderson Inches, Alderman Joseph B. Jamieson, who is running as an at-large candidate, and Alderman Carroll B. Hoffman, present at-large member, swapping positions with Ward Alderman Jamieson.

To Newton Residents

Dear Friends:

For the last two years it has been very noticeable that there has been an apparent lessening of the display of the American flag on Armistice Day.

In view of world events, the vetarans of Newton, to whom Armistice Day is most dear, respectfully request that all merchants and all residents having in their possession the American flag, display same on this next Armistice Day.

Oak Hill People Want Shooting In Newton Prohibited

Henry S. Cummings, president of the Oak Hill Improvement Associa-tion, has filed with the Board of Al-dermen a petition asking that a city ordinance be adopted which will pro-hibit shooting of firearms by hunters in any part of Newton. At present the police cannot stop such shooting on land where hunters have obtained per-mission from the owners of the land. The petition states in part:

Fewer Criminal Cases In Newton Court Past Year

Court Past Year

The report of James P. Gallagher, clerk of the Newton district court. for the twelve months ending September 30, 1939, shows that during that period 1990 criminal cases were tried in the court. During the year which ended on Sept. 30, 1938, such cases totalled 2042, and the preceding year they totalled 2621. The number of arrests in Newton for drunkenness during the 12 months which ended on September 30, was 715; in 1938 the total was 728, and in 1937 the total was 728, and in 1937 the total was 918. The number of court cases for violations of automobile and traffic laws have largely decreased the past two years. The past year they totalled $21; the preceding year 968, and during the year ending September 30, 1937, they totalled 1260. Arrests for driving while under the influence of liquor totalled 55 during the past year, 61 during 1938 and 86 the preceding 12 months. In the juvenile court 58 cases were tried during the past 12 months, as compared with 61 and 85 the two preceding years. Twenty-two neglected children were cared for during the period as compared with 18 the preceding 12 months.

The civil business in the Newton court has increased. During the year the number of civil writs totalled 1927. These included 1017 actions on contracts, 711 tort cases, and 186 eject- (Continued on Page 12)

The MacDonald woman, who was the wife of James S. MacDonald, I formerly resided at 19 Cross st., West Newton. She and MacDonald were the parents of eight children and the family was on welfare. She was born at Pictou, Nova Scotia, and her maiden name was Margerita Clish. She and MacDonald had been separated for the past year, and he has been living at Newtonville.

Plummer, an upholsterer by occupation, and the father of eight children, had been a regular visitor to Mrs. MacDonald's home the past year. He came to her house Monday night, and entered the kitchen where the woman was playing cards with Mrs. Mary Blodgett of 221 Cabot st., Newtonville, and Frank Riley of Conant rd., Weston. The latter had brought a pheasant, which he had shot, to the house, Mrs MacDonald's 18 year old son, s James, and a boy chum of his were also in the room. Plummer told the woman he would like to talk private.

NEWTON NEEDS A CHANGE

Through the years we believe that our political opposition to Mayor Childs has become generally known. With the utmost sincerity, and without bitterness or rancor, we hold to the opinion that Newton needs a change of administration in the office of its Chief Executive.

We realize fully the great popularity of the present Mayor. He has a multitude of friends among the voters, many of whom know him only in a personal way. They cannot and will not believe that most of the opposition that has been offered arises from the honest conviction that the interests of the city would be better served by a Mayor who possesses more initiative, more aggressiveness, and a greater willingness to shoulder the responsibilities of the office.

There is one striking fact that cannot be ignored or denied. Through these many years numerous civic-minded citizens have served as members of the Board of Aldermen. They have been closer to the scene of action than most. Many of them began their career of public service as supporters of Mayor Childs at the polls. It is almost inconceivable to note how few of those who served in elective office under Mayor Childs render him their enthusiastic support at the present time. There can be but one answer - that in the public service they have come to realize that Newton needs aggressive leadership in place of the passive, non-cooperative, titular, yet personally popular, Chief Executive.

Numerous attempts have been made to defeat Mayor Childs. All have failed. He served for eight consecutive terms during the war, post-war and prosperous eras, a total of sixteen years, With his usual political acumen he withdrew from the possibility of any contest with Sinclair Weeks in the campaign of 1929. During the depression years Newton was fortunate in having a capable, business executive of the type of Mayor Weeks, at the helm. When Mayor Weeks retired after six years of valuable service Mayor Childs re-entered the picture. He has served two terms, and is now completing twenty years With his usual political acumen he withdrew from the pos-He has served two terms, and is now completing twenty years

He has served two terms, and is now completing twenty years as Newton's Mayor. In the past two campaigns opposition to his re-election was again offered and turned back on both occasions.

From these past campaigns many persons have come to believe that the Mayor cannot be defeated. But during the past four years conditions have been far different than prior to the depression. Governmental costs have soared, welfare is a disturbing problem, the tax situation is becoming more desperate, year by year, and many other vital problems affect the well-being of all of our citizens. We need a forward-looking executive who has the willingness to make an exhaustive and conscientious study into possible solutions of these pressing questions.

Most persons, satisfied and content that Newton is a fine city in which to live, indifferently overlook the fact that the trying times of the past ten years have changed the situation and made our problems more serious. The trend of governmental costs in many cities, less favorably situated than Newton, has been downward in the past year while in Newton there has been an annual increase in expenditures for several successive years.

During the past week factual information was placed before the citizens of Newton showing graphically Newton's experience during the past twenty-five years. It is well worth individual study upon the part of every citizen interested in maintaining Newton's reputation for efficient government although the financial aspect of the administration of the city's affairs is but one phase of the coming election.

The Sport of Lifting Squash
Possibly a psychologist has a ready explanation but most of us are left guessing by what appears a common if not natural impulse. And that is a desire which seizes a group of men as they view of a huge squash or pumphs. Each one, almost to a man, wants to get his hands on it for the purpose of seeing how easily he can lift it. Not long ago I witnessed the purpose of seeing how easily he can lift it. Not long ago I witnessed the purpose of seeing how easily he can lift it. Not long ago I witnessed the purpose of seeing how easily he can lift it. Not long ago I witnessed the purpose of seeing how easily he can lift it. It is well worth individual study upon the part of every citizen interested in maintaining Newton's reputation for efficient government although the financial aspect of the administration of the city's affairs but one phase of the coming election.

Emphasis has been placed upon the lack of a covernation.

Emphasis has been placed upon the lack of co-operation between the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen. It has been an unusual experience to find that the appointment of three different individuals by the Mayor have been practically unanimously rejected by the Board. On one occasion two members supported the Mayor's choice, on another one, and on the other not one of the twenty-one members comprising the Board. There has been apparent lack of co-operation in police matters and also affairs in the soldiers' relief department, both of which have been the subject of special aldermanic investiga-

With all of these facts in mind the desirability of a change in the administration of Newton's government becomes, we believe, self-evident. And it can be accomplished.

There are three candidates opposing the re-election of the present Mayor. We have known each of them for several years and we have the highest respect for the honesty of purpose of all. Of the three, however, the one candidate who possesses most of the qualifications which we believe Newton needs in its Chief Executive are those exemplified by Paul M

Through youth and early manhood Paul M. Goddard worked to obtain an education. He has worked diligently and industriously for every success he has made and owes no allegiance to any group or individual. He has served as a member of the Board of Aldermen and as a Representative to the Massachusetts Legislature. In both these offices he has demonstrated qualities of leadership, initiative, and a willingness to shoulder responsibility. He recognizes the rights of individuals to obtain an honest and decent living in municipal service, and he recognizes the rights of the citizen who expects to receive the maximum benefit from the tax dollars which he pays in order that the city may furnish services necessary to the community's well-being. And as Mayor of Newton we are confident that Paul M. Goddard will make every effort possible to solve the ever-increasing problems which confront every public official.

We trust that the voters of Newton are aware of the facts. If they will exercise their right of franchise to vote on Tuesday, November 7th, election day, Paul M. Goddard will be the next Mayor of Newton.

AN IMPORTANT ELECTION

We would remind our readers again of the importance of voting next Tuesday. For the first time in the history of the city all members of the Board of Aldermen and all members of the School Committee, in addition to the Mayor, will be elected under the biennial method of election. It will be a long ballot with some fifty or more candidates contesting for twenty-nine positions. All are important. We have already dwelt at length on the mayoralty situation and space does not permit an expression of our opinion on the many contests.

There are four contests among candidates for the School Committee, upon three of which we shall comment briefly. The voters of Newton have the opportunity to elect to the School Committee as the member from Ward 2 an outstanding civic-minded citizen in Charles Raymond Cabot. Mr. Cabot has given much of his time and interest to community affairs of one kind or another, although he has never before sought elective office. Mr. Cabot will be a most valuable asset to the School Committee and should receive the support of a large majority of his fellow citizens. In Ward 3 School Committeeman Ralph F. Taber is being opposed for re-election. Mr. Taber should be returned. A similar situation exists in Ward 6 where an attempt is being made to unseat Clark B. Bristol. We trust that the voters will also re-elect Mr. Bristol.

Mattress Voters

Just a word, if I may, on the coming city election. The subject of this brief offering is "mattress voting." Yes, we have such voters in Newton although I may not mean what you mean. I do not refer to those who falsely register for the sake of voting from an address that is not actually their abiding place. That matter, as far as I know, has given little if any trouble in Newton. The "mattress voter" I have in mind is not punishable under the law for the offence he commits. What he does is pretty bad, though, and something ought to be done to him. He is literally a mat-their shoulders. They were not all farmers. In fact I think the city residents showed a greater interest, Guesses as to the weight were in order and they varied widely, some 30 pounds less than the others. Maybe it is a general liking for squash that possesses all good New Englanders. An inspiring vision of squash served as one of the Thanksgiving dinner vegetables or in a pie is the best solution of the problem I can offer.

Powers' Paragraphs

Next Tuesday is election day in Newton. A Mayor, twenty-one aldermen and seven members of the school committee will be chosen; the entire city government. They will control the affairs of the City of Newton for the coming two years. They will determine to a large degree the tax rate that residents of Newton will have to pay. They will frequently be asked to decide whether the Zoning Ordinance of Newton will be protected, or whether the bars will be let down so that the future of this city as a high-class residential community will be threatened. Whether one is satisfied or dissatisfied with the way in which Newton has been governed, the logical, sensible thing to do, is to go to your polling place on Tuesday and vote. Don't shirk your duty. If the majority of Newton's citizens did this, this city would soon deteriorate. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 8 p. m. VOTE.

McKay Refutes Charges of Wrecking Credit

Makes Public Correspondence Relative To City's Finances

During the current mayoralty cam-paign charges have been made that certain individuals in Newton have een trying to wreck the credit of e city. In refutation of these situation has been man of the Finance Committee of the Newton Board of Aldermen. Mr. Newton Board of Adermen. Mr. McKay states that the charges are based entirely upon a letter over his signature, dated October 25, 1938, which was sent to various banking institutions in Boston.

Mr. McKay's letter read as follows: "The city of Newton recently authorized Welfare and Emergency loans which have caused some comment. As chairman of the Finance Commit-As chairman of the Finance Commit-tee I am anxious to have Newton's credit maintain first position. The enclosed copy of my remarks on the general subject of its finances may be of help in appraising its credit when next you bid for bonds.

(Signed) DONALD D. McKAY.

Mr. McKay states that due to the Mr. McKay states that due to the fact that Newton was obliged to bor-row for welfare purposes (contrary to its usual practice of meeting current expenses out of ordinary revenue) the impression might be created in the impression might be created in the investment field that Newton's credit was becoming unsound. The remarks referred to in Mr. McKay's letter were those made by him at the West Newton Men's Club meeting on Oct. 19, 1938. In his closing statements is the following quotation: "Newton enjoys the best credit rating of any city in Massachusetts and few in the United States surpass it. But it will hold that position only as long as intelligent effort is constantly applied."

Mayoralty Candidates Give Peppy Speeches At City Employees Rally

Last Friday night at V. F. W. Hall, Newton, Newton City Employees Local held an open rally which was addressed by the four candidates for the office of Mayor of Newton. Mayor Childs told the gathering that some person, who claimed to be a member of the "finance board" of Newton, had attempted to injure the credit of this city by writing to a Boston banking firm advising that company to take into account when it submitted bids on floating a bond issue, that Newton's finances are not what they used to be. The recipient of the letter got in touch with City Treasurer Newhall to inquire if anything was wrong with Newton's credit. The Mayor said that Newton is sound financially and quoted State Tax Commissioner Long as saying that Newton is one of the places which can be relied on to sustain the State, that it has weathered the financial storm much better than other cities, that it has not done excessive borrowing, and its tax rate is lower than those of the other cities.

Mayor said that Newton is sound financially and quoted State Tax Commissioner Long as saying that Newton is one of the places which can be relied on to sustain the State, that it has weathered the financial storm much better than other cities, that it has not done excessive borrowing, and its tax rate is lower than those of the other cities.

Paul M. Goddard said that rumors are being circulated about the city that he intends to reduce the wages of city employees if he will be elected. Goddard said that these rumors are false, that he has no intention of reducing wages, and that he had refused to promise he will cut the tax rate $2.50 if by so doing it would necessitate the cutting of wages. Goddard told the city employees that he would see that they will receive their proper allocations, according to civil service. He told of having sponsored a law passed by the Legislature the past year whereby contractors bidding on the construction, repairing or reconstruction of any public building must submit not only their bid on the general contract, but also the bids of subcontracts on the job. Labor leaders had been trying to get this law passed for several years, as it will prevent the subletting of contracts at prices which result in low wages to men engaged in building trades.

leaders had been trying to get this law passed for several years, as it will prevent the subletting of contracts at prices which result in low wages to men engaged in building trades.

Alderman McCabe criticised alleged interference with the authority of department heads in Newton under Mayor Childs regime by subordinates. He said that in the police department, the police department there are three wheels within wheels, trying to hamstring Chief Hughes, who has been attempting to do a good job. Alderman McCabe said that in the Street Department there was a situation whereby one subordinate made purchases without consulting the head of the department, He said that the late Commissioner Matoney and Acting Commissioner McCarthy had to put up with it. McCabe said that in 1936 the present Mayor saw fit to put into the Soldiers' Rellef Department a recipient of soldiers' rellef who dominated that department, and that the Commissioner of that department had to do what this man wanted done. McCabe said that if he put ment a recipient of soldiers' rellef who dominated that department had to do what this man wanted done. The ball bounded over the Newton safetymar's head into the end zone. Hurley retrieved it and ran it out to the Newton 17. Rezutti and Doble, with gains of 7 and 3 yards made it a first down which was duplicated by Heath and Rezutti to bring the ball to the 38. Rezutti added four more which was offset by a finable in the Newton backlield. An incomplete pass down the alley by Heath norced Hurley to kick, the strong wind carrying the ball outside at the Rindge 33. Baniewicz was stopped. Hurley in tercepted a Rindge aerial and raced through the Rindge team to the 15-yard stripe. Newton was guility of clipping at the 25 yard line and the resulting 15-yard penalty set them back to the 40. Another fumble in the Newton backfield lost six yards and on fourth down Hurley punted outside at the 20. Powers and Baniewicz picked up 7 yards in three rushes before Rindge was forced to kick. The Newton line charged fast and MacNell blocked the ball. Fisher recovered the loose pigskin on the Rindge 7-yard line. Rezutti raced through left tackle and cut to his right to score standing up. Hurley missed the placement goal. Powers for a two yard loss which Dotten got back on an end run, Rindge then kicked, the ball bounding around until a Rindge end fell on the ball as it was about to cross the goalline. Most of their fun was good-natured and harmless, but the senseless practice of dumping ash barrels which had been placed out on sidewalks, onto the streets, was again indulged in. More complaints were received by the police from the Waban and Hishlands section than from other parts of the city, and Nonantum again earned the honor of being the least disorderly. On the whole, the boys and girls in Newton were more orderly than in other places. Practically all of the police force was on duty Tuesday night, but the rain served as the best keeper of law and order on that evening.

naturally ask ourselves two questions. Who is sponsoring this appeal? What is its purpose? Judged in this light there was never a more deserving cause presented to the generous-hearted people of the City of Newton than that of the Newton Community Chest. "The sponsors of this appeal are the most representative and highly respected individuals of this city. Without any personal gains and at the cost of much time and energy, they have given themselves and their talents to the sublime cause of local charity.

"The object of this appeal is to support the charitable agencies that help the poor, comfort the sick, give new courage to the despondent, and new sunshine to families darkened by poverty and unemployment. These conditions exist everywhere today and the City of Newton is no expension. conditions exist everywhere today and he City of Newton is no exception. They blight her beauty, but by improving them we add to her glory. For thereby we beautify her with the told of fraternal charity. And for us hat improvement lies in the Commutity Chest—the fountain source of local relief.

"Honorable—self-sacrificing are its leaders—laudable and most deserving is its purpose. How then can any resident of this city, blessed by God with the goods of this earth, refuse to answer to the annual appeal of the Newton Community Chest, or how can any worker of this organization be lacking in enthusiasm, or self-sacrifice to do his or her part to make this drive an outstanding success?"

At a recent meeting of the Catholic clergy of this city, plans to aid the Campaign were made.

"Isn't it a beauty? And it's all mine"

'I've wanted a radiophonograph for a long time so finally I started to save a little money regularly each week and put it in the savings bank. The other day I saw just the machine I wanted, had enough cash in the bank and bought it. No scrimping now to pay for it it's all mine to enjoy fully.

It's always smart to be thrifty - to save before you spend. Keep your savings in this bank where your money is available when you want it. If you have no savings account, open one today.

TO TELEPHONE USERS IN BOSTON AND VICINITY

As recently announced by the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, savings totaling $175,000 a year for many telephone users became effective Nov. 1. At the same time, a faster, more efficient and more extensive dial service went into operation in Metropolitan Boston.

As a result of wide extension of the direct dial area, any dial telephone in Boston and vicinity may now reach nearly 420,000 telephones by dialing directly. These include nearly every telephone listed in the Boston directory and all telephones in the city of Lynn.

These service improvements are made possible by many years of research by the Bell Telephone Laboratories and by this Company.

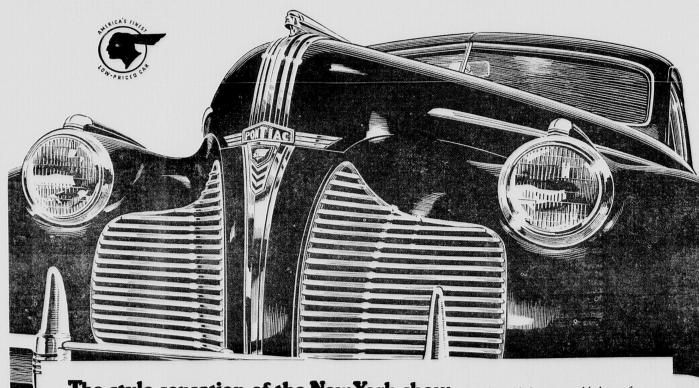

LETTERS ARE NOW ON THE WAY to all customers whose service or rates are affected by the new improvements, and the new Boston telephone directories, which will be delivered shortly, will include complete details of the new service. We call your attention to the introductory pages of the forthcoming directory for further information on our new and more complete service for our Boston

The Telephone Business Office serving your community will gladly answer any questions about the new service.

Dinner In Honor of Miss Mary Mulligan

A dinner party was tendered Miss Mary M. Mulligan, Past Chief Ranger of Middlesex Court of Foresters by a group of members of that court last Saturday evening at the "Toil House," Whitman. Miss Mary E. Blake was chairman of the committee which arranged the testimonial. Among those present was Dr. Francis J. Mulligan, brother of the guest of honor, and Medical Examiner of Middlesex Court. Following the dinner members of the party returned to Newton and enjoyed a social hour at the home of Miss Eleanor Mulcahy on Gardner st.

Will Enforce Law On Bicycle Lights

Lieut, Edward Moan, head of the Traffic Bureau of the Newton Police Department states that he will enforce the law relative to bicycles displaying a light at night. This law has been in existence for many years, but police departments, on the whole have not enforced it. Because of the increasing number of collisions between bicycles and automobiles, Lieut. Moan will enforce this law in Newton.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

In her talk "This Changing Social Order", Mrs. Parker will urge that women try to understand the evolutionary processes involved in the changes that are taking place in our environment today, and to play a constructive role in the New Day.

The members of the Newton Community Club greatly enjoyed the "Romance Pictures" shown by Mr. Harris Walter Reynolds at the meeting on Thursday, October 28th. These pictures were in color of the Spanish Missions in Southern California, and there was an accompaniment of appropriate music which added greatly to the beauty of the presentation.

A business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Wallace Wales, president, preceding the program. Various chairmen of committees gave notices of many activities, among them one by the American Home committee, of a lecture and demonstration. "The Romance of Silver and Art of Table Setting", at the Immanuel Baptist Church on November 17th. Mrs. Elliott B. Church will give a course on "How to Enjoy the Bible", on Friday mornings, at 10 a.m., at her home, 30 Bennington st. The informal evening at the Y. W. C. A., November 6th, at 7:30 o'clock, by the Junior Club committee was announced and the Rummage Sale to be held November 17 and 18. Announcement was also made that there will be a Food Sale at the Close of the meeting November 9.

During the social hour following Mr. Paynold's pictures home-made doughnuts with cider and cheese were served to Club members and their guests. the pourers being Miss Florence C. Bacon, Mrs. John W. Howard and Mrs. Nelson R. Scott.

The Educational Club met on Fri The Educational Club met on Friday, October 27, in the Second Church Parish House. Miss O'Neil, Planist, rendered several selections, and then Mr. Henry W. Nunn spoke on "How Far Have We Come Since Ancient Rome." Autumn leaves and jack-olanterns around the hall and Tea Room gave a real Hallowe'en spirit. Mrs. William D. Keefe very kindly gave to the Club a silver sugar and creamer tray, and also a Christmas Card Scrap Book that is to be sent to the Newton Hospital. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. D. Webster Anders and Mrs. D. Earle Brackett as pourers, and Mrs. Edward E. Hickey and Mrs. A. Norman Needy the hostesses.

This year Camp Mary Day is to be open and plans are being made for interesting days outdoors on ten Saturdays during the year, under the direction of the Newton committee of outdoor activities, Mrs. A. T. Soule, chairman.

Mrs. G. Gould Cook, of Waban, is in charge of the first of these days on Nov. 4th. Her assistants are: Mrs. Horace Cole, Mrs. Paul R. Carmack, Waban; Mrs. Edward Learnard, Newton; Mrs. Albert A. Nyitray, Waban; Mrs. H. Schermerhorn, Waban.

The special program on this date will be a demonstration and talk on how and when to cut wood for shelters and allied subjects for the tree finder merit badge given by Mr. Harold Cook of the state conservation department. Time — 11 to 12. We hope many girls will avail themselves of this fine opportunity to learn from an authority, a little practical woodlore. Come and cook your lunch and enjoy the fun.

Club, a class that meets evenings, enjoyed a Hallowe'en Party on Saturday evening. Lawrence Tempests had the best sense of direction in giving the Witch's Cat its tail, and received a ticchain for his efforts. Dan De Rubeis was the quickest in the chair march and won a collar bar as his prize. Robert Keefe and his committee of Lawrence Tempests, Harry Metz, Vincent Galvagno, and Paul Cavanaugh arranged the program. Supervising this committee were Carmel Tempesta, President of the Club, Mr. Andrew, and William Ward, a volunteer worker in the Boys' Division. orker in the Boys' Division

Fifty-four members of the Cadet Division assembled in the auditorium last Saturday morning for the annual Hallowe'en Party. The program opened with a costume parade in which Norman Vincent took first prize as Charlie Chaplin. John Emmons, dressed as Daniel Boone, was a close second, and Dean Aydelott, as a Ghost, came third. The movies were represented by William Wayman and Stanley Kimball who took fourth and fifth places as "The Scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz" and "Mickey Mouse." Leo McIsaac as Snow White and Jersome Roth as a Pirate received honorable mention. In the game section, Norman Mattson and Kenneth Hoyt took the prizes for supplying the donkey with a tail; John Vachon and John Wathen were quite close with giving the Witch's Cat an appendage; and the eyes for the pumpkin were very nearly put in place by Bryce Seaman strators who will be available through-

Although the election is over there is considerable interest being manifested in the recount to be made on the mayoralty vote. The probable narrow defeat of Mayor Edwin O. narrow defeat of Mayor Edwin O. Childs is of course the outstanding feature of Tuesday's election. Heretofore the popular Mayor has turned back all attempts to unseat him. In his defeat there are numerous angles of particular interest.

Last week we predicted that Goddard would defeat Mayor Childs by a small plurality. Our prediction was based upon several observations. First in importance was a noticeable

Second in importance was the number of voters who turned out. The diligent efforts who take the vote been heavier it is probable that Mayor Childs would have been returned to office. The vote that Goddard Waters and McCabe received to some extent, represented the peak of their individual efforts. A heavier vote would have included consistent supporters of the present Mayor who take the point of view that Newton hasn't been too badly off under his administration. The votes that were cast for the Mayor's opponents were a change. The third important factor in the election was the presence of two well-known candidates in James A. Waters and Frank T. McCabe. In prior campaigns the two leading candidates have settled the less with other candidates previous years he would have won handily, as we also noted in this administration. ger than any group of men, it commands the support of all who call themselves good citizens. Health, welfare, philanthropic and character-building organizations must be maintained. Their work makes for a permanent and progressive city. They cannot be supported by taxation but must depend upon voluntary gifts of broadminded, large-hearted, public-spirited citizens.

The Chest provides the easiest and quickest way to make the best investment we can possibly make for a better Newton. Let us in the coming days give promptly and do our best.

The future of our city depends upon the way we plan and build. If we get together, and stay together and contribute together, we shall work out together the best interests of all.

by Howard Davis

At a public meeting under the auspices of the Men's Club of the Newton Centre Methodist Church, last evening, Howard P. Davis, current historian, lecturer, and foreign correspondent, who returned to America after the outbreak of the war against Poland, gave a most enlightening talk on the events leading up to the present European crisis. The title of his subject was "Riddles of 1935." In tracing the course of events from cause to effect, Mr. Davis presented the facts behind the news against a background of European history that sustained the interest of a sizable audience.

Referring to the attitude of the United States toward the European war, Mr. Davis named three reasons for advocating non-participation on the part of this country. "It is not enough for us to resist involvement merely on the ground of a desire to save our sons, however worthy such a motive might seem to be. We must keep out of this war, first, because we will need clean hands when the war is over if we are going to be able to render a constructive contribution to reconstruction. Second, because there is no democracy in the world today strong enough to expose itself to the ravaging reactions of a major war. Finally, there remains the stern necessity of protecting our own democracy by a program of constructive and positive action. This will not be done by fighting on foreign soil."

Mr. Davis quoted Lord Lothian as having said in a recent speech in the United States, "It is inconceivable to the solution of the greatest problem that has ever presented itself to the

Annual Red Cross Roll Call Starts

Newton's Membership Quota Is Raised to 8000

The twenty-third annual Roll Call of the American Red Cross will be inaugurated tomorrow with Armistice Day. The Roll Call will continue through Thanksgiving Day. Newton's quota has been raised to an 8.000 minimum because of the increase in need because of war conditions. Officials of the Newton Chapter of the Red Cross anticipate that Newton will accept the challenge as it always has and respond to the call for increased membership.

Meanwhile the response for knitting and sewing groups and individuals to assist Newton Chapter in its work for Polish refugees has been generous. More volunteers will be welcome to meet this quota which consists of 80 men's sweaters, 40 women's sweaters, 80 children's dresses. Information regarding yarns, materials. etc., may be obtained from Red Cross headquarters at 12 Austin st, Newtonville.

A RECOUNT IS IN ORDER

For the first time in the memory of many citizens of Newton a recount of the mayoralty vote on election day will be undertaken. The narrow margin by which Representative Paul M. Goddard defeated Mayor Childs together with the confusion which apparently resulted on the part of voters as well as tellers on a long ballot, further complicated by the preferential method of voting, makes such a recount a sensible and orderly procedure. When more than 22,000 votes are cast and the difference between the two leading candidates is but 140 votes any possible errors in the count should be rectified. It is even more desirable that this be done when one stops to consider that the carly unofficial returns gave Goddard a plurality of the trip. that the early unofficial returns gave Goddard a plurality of nearly a thousand votes, which was finally reduced to a margin of but 293 on the official returns of first choice votes, and but 90 on total first, second and third choices. Any doubt as to the voters' wishes should be cleared up. Meanwhile the supporters of both candidates will be anxiously awaiting the outcome, to say nothing of the nerve-wracking experience that the candidates themselves will be undergoing in the interim.

ARMISTICE DAY

Tomorrow is Armistice Day. It was just twenty-one years ago that the titanic struggle was terminated, and as we now know, but temporarily. Yet out of that harrowing travail we learned many lessons. Despite the fact that Europe is today on the verge of bursting into a conflagration which will surpass that of a generation ago the people of almost every land are praying for peace. Although we are continually reminded of United States should indeed have its praying for peace. Although we are continually reminded of the latent war that is smouldering let us tomorrow renew the pledge to those boys of yesterday—that they did not die in vain—and let us redouble every effort to keep America out of war and bring peace and understanding to this earth.

Powers' Paragraphs

Unless the recount of the votes cast for Mayor of Newton will result in wiping out the plurality of 143 which Paul M. Goddard now possesses, the long regime of Edwin O. Childs as chief executive of this city will end on January 1. Mr. Childs has been Mayor of Newton for nearly 20 years. He was regarded as unbeatable. In fact, the writer stated in this column after the election in December, 1937, that in his opinion, Mr. Childs would win again this year, if he were a candidate. There are two reasons for the apparent defeat of Mr. Childs. One is—that he made several serious and reasonably zealous. In fact, the writer stated in this column after the election in December, 1937, that in his opinion, Mr. Childs would win again this year, if he were a candidate. There are two reasons for the apparent defeat of Mr. Childs. One is—that he made several serious mistakes during the past two years which alienated many of his former supporters from him. The second reason is—the intelligent campaign conducted by Mr. Goddard and his advisers. A third reason is being advisers of the Mayor namely—the entrance into the fight of Mr. Waters and Alderman McCabe. But, the fact remains, that obviously Mr. Childs has lost much of his policitical popularity. Even though the might win in the recount, which we

The American Home and Youth Conference will be presented by the division of the American Home of the State Federation, on Thursday, November 16th, at the Parker House, Boston. Mrs. Arthur G. Fletcher, chairman, will preside and will introduce the encakers and encasts in Boston. Mrs. Arthur G. Fletcher, chairman, will preside and will introduce the speakers and guests, including Mrs. Henry W. Hildreth, president of the State Federation; Mrs. Schuyler W. Van Ness, adviser to the division of American Home; and Mrs. Robert W. Sanderson, director of the Sixth District.

Miss Irene Wicker, "The Singing Lady," popular radio star of a nation-wide children's program, will give a number of short sample programs, including the "Legend of the Moonlight Sonata"; one of her series of travel stories, "Nancy and Charlie See America"; the childhood story of Franz Schubert; the childhood story of Jean Francois Millet; and "Goldilocks and the Three Bears." A discussion of radio programs for children will precede this part of the program. Miss Wicker will open the afternoon session, followed by Marion T. Rudkin, speaking on "Inner Resources." Mrs. Rudkin is especially well known to clubwomen on the North Shore, where she has given many talks of an inspirational nature. The morning session will open at 10 o'clock. After greetings from the State officers, Mrs. Fletcher will present the group of speakers. Program of Children's Talent

An event of great interest for the coming week is a most entertaining one planned by the Newton Highlands Woman's Club. Tuesday. November 14. the American Home committee under its chairman, Mrs. Will T. Layerty, is sponsoring a Children's Talent program. This will be given in the Parish House of the Congregational Church at 2:45 p. m. More than fifty children are taking part in this program, and all in the community are invited to attend.

The first Play-Reading of the Dramatic committee of the Club will be held on Friday. November 17th, at 2 o'clock, in the Workshop.

Mrs. Carlton Perkins reminds of the group to be formed for the "Study of Antiques," and Miss Marion Dorr reminds members of Mrs Marion F. Rudkin's second Book Talk on November 14th, in the Workshop.

Mrs. Frank Mansfield Taylor's opening theme in her talk to the Woman's Club last Tuesday was her trip to South America. She felt that rather than the 80 to 90 per cent increase in our trade which is expected the final result would be nearer 30 per cent.

but on fourth down Murray had to kick, the ball going outside at the Newton 15.

Flagg tossed a long pass to Tony Hines who had relieved Teschner at left end for Newton. Hines and a Medford secondary both got their hands on the ball at the same time but each tore it from the other's grasp. The ball fell to the ground and was ruled incomplete. On another attempted pass Flagg was smothered on the one yard line. Edgerly received Flagg's ensuing kick on the Newton 40 and was run outside at the 37. Two rushes gained five yards and two incomplete passes gave Newton the ball on downs on their 32. Beatty gained two yards as the half ended.

Newton's kickoff was run back to the Medford 30. Cannava gained 9 yards and 2 yards with a no gain effort by Edgerly coming in between. Edgerly was thrown for a 2 yard loss. A forward pass and a lateral to Margarita, Medford guard, gained four yards. A pass was incomplete and Murray punted to Joe Beatty who got away for a 9 yard runback to the Newton 34. On third down Beatty kicked. It surpassed Flagg's two great efforts, soaring over the Medford safety's head and rolling across the goalline. The ball was put in play on the Medford 20. Cannava made two yards and Edgerly 8 for a first down. A lateral to Edgerly swept the Medford horde on for 17 yards before Joe Beatty forced the Medford back outside. Cannava's 7 yard effort and Murray's three made it first down again on Newton's side of midfield. Medford took to the air. The attack boomeranged. Heath intercepted on the Newton 45-yard line, was protected by half a dozen interferers and raced down the west sideline for 55 yards and Newton's touchdown. "Pep" Young trotted onto the field. During practice Young had been kicking placement goals consistently. He made a good try but the ball sailed about two feet outside the post and the score remained knotted at 6-all. Cannava almost got away for a touchdown run on the Newton kickoff getting over to the sideline and past midfield before being hauled to earth after a 45 yard run. An exchange of punts gave Medford the ball again on the Newton 45-yard marker. Here Newton held and Murray's fourth down kick went outside at the Newton 15. IN UNDEFEATED SEASON

The Newton Redskins wound up the 1939 City Football League season with a 6 to 0 victory over Gath's Guards at Cabot Park amid the heavy ain and a muddy field. The victory and shutout kept the Thompsonville team's record spotless with no defeats and no opponents score in its five rames. At West Newton Common the Veduccios and West Newton bat iled to a scoreless deadlock. During the first half the Veduccios played with ten men when insufficient members failed to show up because of the rain.

The Redskins' touchdown came in the second period after Paulini llocked a punt which was recovered by Howie Milner had carried to the 5-yard line, Johnny Fitzgerald's try for place-kick failed.

Want to Feel like a Big Shor? PROBABLY you're a big shot alin the staunch and steady look into what's included ready to someone, so you know something of how good it feels.

What we mean is, how'd you like to feel like you used to think a big shot must feel, cruising along in his big brawny Buick, envy of every voungster in town?

Fact is, a big brawny Buick-this year's beauty of a Buick-is within your reach right now, if you just put your mind to it.

A husky headlong 107-horsepowered giant valve-in-head straight-eight can be yours to command-you can roll around town carriage that's sure big. beautiful and a bearcat in action when its boss gives the word!

Yes, you can ride in the gentle lap of Foamtex-cushioned luxury - shift gears with a flip of your finger, take bumps without notice in BuiCoil Springing's "full float" comfort, even signal your turns by a touch on a lever that shuts itself off when you're

Essay Contest Sponsored By Savings Bank

High school and grade school students of Newton and nearby communities are being invited to participate in a prize essay contest sponsored by the Newton Savings Bank. Two prizes of $5 each will be awarded for the best essays of 300 words or less on the subject "What Savings Bank Life Insurance Can Mean to My Parents".

Bank Life Insurance Can Mean to My Parents."

The contest runs through November. The essays will be judged in two groups, those submitted by grade school students and those submitted by high school students. Prizes will be announced Dec. 15.

The purpose of the contest, according to Mr. Ralph S. E. Sanguinetti, manager of the bank's Life Insurance Department, is "to bring home to the students, and to their parents, the very real benefits of Savings Bank Life Insurance. We feel that the young people who familiarize themselves thoroughly with this subject will profit by their knowledge not only in the contest, but in the future when they themselves are interested in the purthemselves are interested in the pur chase of life insurance."

State Prison Chaplain Speaks At Men's League

The Annual Ladies' Night of Men's League of the Immanuel Baptist Church, at Newton Corner, was held on Tuesday evening at the church. A turkey supper was served, followed by Community singing—and brief talks by the pastor, Rev. Otis R. Heath, his father, Rev Hugh A. Heath, also of Newton; Mr. W. A. Howman, the teacher of the class; Pitt W. Danforth, president of the class, who presided: Wm. H. Cady and Selden S. Hardy.

A very interesting and instructive talk was given by Rev. W. Bradley Whitney of Somerville, who has just recently retired after serving as chaplain of the State Prison at Charlestown for many years.

His many pictures and timely anecdotes gave those in attendance a good idea of what the state is doing for the education and development of those committed to the institution as well as the very large percentage of those who are fitted to better earn a livelihood upon leaving it.

The supper, singing and program was provided by the social committee of the League, of which P. E. Eden is chairman.

Why Drinking GOLDEN GUERNSEY

is a good health habit

Of all the things we eat, milk alone is intended in nature solely as a food. Perhaps this is the reason no other food can be compared to milk or substituted for it. Golden Guernsey milk insures a higher degree of health and vigor with greater ability to resist disease.

Balloons Aid in Checking On Center of Hurricane

On Center of Hurricane

A tiny instrument, weighing about the and one-quarter ounces and suspended beneath a small balloon, is science's latest device for finding the whys and wherefores of South Atlantic and Gulf coast hurricanes. According to W. R. Gregg, chief of the United Stakes weather bureau conducting tests of the equipment, the data obtained will add immeasurably to what is already known about hurricanes. The instruments are sent out from three stations—located near Montgomery, Ala.; Jackson, Miss.; and Augusta, Ga.—operated by the Massachusetts institute of technology, co-operating with the government in this study. London Holds Fish Fights

Battles to the death between Siamese fighting fish offer a new craze in London society. The gaudy three-inch tropical enemies meet in a tank and bets are decided on points or a "knockout." At one party attended by 30 persons $2.500 was at stake on one contest. The fish are being imported in hundreds by tropical fish dealers. The fighters are kept in tanks separated by glass partitions and betters study form as in horse races. The partition is removed and a powerful light thrown on them to increase their vitality. The new Lincoln-Eliot School on Pearl st., between Jackson rd. and Gardner st., opened as Newton's new-est educational institution on Monday morning of this week. It is a credit to the city and the PWA which helped pay for its erection. The children attending this school, many of them former pupils at the Lincoln, Eliot, Stearns and Underwood schools, are quite enthusiastic over their new educational quarters, During the past 85 years at the Lincoln School, and 55 years at the Lincoln School, and 55 years at the Lincoln School, and 55 years at the Licit School, most of the pupils were children or grand-children of immigrants. The great majority of these boys and girls grew up to become citizens who were assest to Newton or other communities. Many of them became prosperous. We hope, and believe that the present and future generations of children who will attend the new school, will profit by the added advantages offered to them in this modern, well equipped building. We also hope that the present economic muddle will soon be straightened out, so that these children will enjoy opportunities for employment and prosperity as they grow to manhood and womanhood. by the added advantages offered to them in this modern, well equipped building. Community Chest Drive Makes Good Progress; 2400 Workers Active

In First Five Days Volunteers Collect $96,946. or 48 Percent of Sum Wanted

With an army of volunteer solicitors, 2400 strong, vigorously at work the Community Chest Campaign reported contributions of $96,946.90 or 48.6 per cent of the $19,905.75 goal on Wednesday morning. The campaign will continue through November 21.

While the progress made thus far is encouraging, Chest officials point out that success can be achieved only through generous contributions by thousands of citizens.

In his message to Campaign Workers, Chairman Wm. V. M. Fawcett summed up the spirit behind the Campaign. He said in part:

"The funds we are to obtain are for families—the families of our friends and neighbors—families whose hopes are dim, whose laughter has been forgotten. has been forgotten.

Grant Permit For Non-Stop Bus Line

On recommendation of the Licenses Committee, the Board of Aldermen on Monday night voted to grant a permit to Peter Picknelly, owner of the Peter Pan Bus Line, to operate busses through Newton en route between Springfield and Boston and return. Picknelly appeared before the Aldermen a few months ago at a hearing on his petition for a franchise to operate his busses through Newton. He explained that he had operated a bus line for several years between Springfield and Boston via Stafford Springs, Connecticut, on an interstate license, but desired to use a more direct route, all in this State, which would shorten the journey by 8 miles. To do this, he must obtain licenses from all cities and towns between Springfield and Boston. He stated that he did not desire to pick up or discharge passengers in this city, and that his buses did not stop in Worcester, or take passengers between Boston and that city.

At that hearing, an attorney for the Boston & Worcester Street Rail-

Sparks will fly at the Newton High School Auditorium next Sunday after-noon when the Newton Community Forum will continue its high standard of speakers, and present the able Congressman from Massachusetts, the Hon. Joseph W. Martin, Jr.

the Hon. Joseph W. Martin, Jr.

Hero of parliamentary battles, pilot and brakeman of Legislature, colorful, informal, "Joe" Martin has the reputation of calling a spade a spade. On the job every instant and possessing an unlimited quantity of good old New England horse sense, Martin is generally credited with holding his tongue until he "sees the whites of their eyes," and then letting go with both barrels.

From newsboy to reporter, to publisher, to Congressman, to minority leader in the House, Martin's record is both honorable and brilliant. Master tactician, he has come to the fore fast. Almost overnight, it seems, he has exploded into a national figure.

Mr. Martin has been asked to continue his talk to things at home. His subject will be "The State of the Nation." Few people are more informed or better qualified to discuss this vital topic of the day. Mr. Martin comes to the Newton Community Forum a prophet with honor in his own country. Mr. Wilson served efficiently as Acting Director during the summer months and received the acclaim of most of the Playground Department staff. But the Mayor did not appoint him director. Instead, on August 21 he appointed Reginald W. Brown of Newtonville, a life-long Newton resident, a former Newton High and Harvard star athlete and football coach as director. When Mr. Brown's name came before the Board of Aldermen, objection was raised that the Mayor had not conferred with members of the Recreation Commission regarding the appointment, as he allegedly had agreed to do. At the meeting on September 11 the Aldermen refused to confirm Mr. Brown's appointment. On September 15 the Mayor named Mr. Brown as Acting Director of Recreation for a period of two months. On October 9 the Mayor appointed F. Ewing Wilson as Director of Recreation, his service to start on October (Continued on page 6)

NEWTON ELECTS A NEW MAYOR

The recount of the mayoralty vote has been completed and Newton has elected a new Mayor by a substantial plurality. The official tabulation of votes, following the checking of the early returns, gives Paul M. Goddard a lead of 720 votes. As we noted last week a recount was in order because of the slight difference of but 140 votes in more than 22,000 ballots cast. Completion of the recount indicated that the voters desired Mr. Goddard as their mayor for the next two years.

Paul M. Goddard has the ability and integrity to give to Newton an honest and efficient administration. We have observed his capabilities and qualifications for executive leadership in numerous ways during the past several years. From our observations we are confident that his term of administration will redound to the advantage of Newton citizens in general. He will make every effort in this direction. Every citizen can assist by an earnest effort to understand the situations which must be confronted and every city employee can assist through a co-operative effort of rendering service to the best of their individual ability.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

Christmas Club, a corporation which serves several thousand banking and financial institutions throughout the country, is authority for the statement that some three hundred and fifty million dollars will be distributed to Christmas Club members during the first week of December. This sum represents the foresighted thriftiness of more than seven million individuals. In Massachustts alone thirty-two millions of dollars will be sent out and from 1938 reports it is estimated that approximately one-third will be used for Xmas purchases and the Special Matinee At balance in various ways. It is not too early to be thinking of Christmas shopping. It hardly seems possible but there are only thirty shopping days before Christmas. Plan now to do your Xmas buying in Newton.

HELP KEEP THE RED CROSS READY

Have you sent in your membership to the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross? If not, do it now. The annual Roll Call now under way began on Armistice Day and will continue through Thanksgiving. Newton's quota is 8,000, an increase over previous years due to war conditions and the need for greater service. The slogan of this membership campaign is "help keep the Red Cross Ready." We do not need to remind our readers of the invaluable service the Red Cross has rendered in the past in time of war, flood, hurricane and other emergencies. It is a privilege to share in the service to humanity such as the Red Cross has always exemplified. The Red Cross needs your membership. Join NOW.

Confidence in Tom's capabilities as a presiding officer has been displayed with almost monotonous regularity during the past seven years. His classmates at Weeks Junior High chose him as their president for three consecutive years. This amazing record was further augmented at Newton High where he again filled that office for three years. This undeniable tesfor three years. This undeniable tes-timonial to Tom's popularity is ex-plained by two inherent factors: the natural qualifications for leadership d the wholesome respect which he mmands from his fellow students commands from his fellow students. Although his activities about school were confined mostly to executive positions, Tom managed to find time to participate in his favorite game—baseball. By dint of hard work and typical perseverance he advanced through the lower squads in his first two years. It was not until then that he came into his own and was recognized as Newton's most dependable varsity pitcher. For two years Tom was an active member of the Hi-Y club, serving as its vice-president in his last year. This office automatically incurred the planning of the weekly program. The high standard of meetings and speakers was the dimeekly program. The high standard meetings and speakers was the di-ect result of Tom's ability to plan, a ait inherited from his dad who is the

In the death of Mary E. P. Sloan on November 13, Newton lost one of its most loyal citizens. Miss Sloan was been in Newton 17 years ago, always took a keen interest in its affairs, and few persons in this city knew more concerning Newton in the past and present than did she until her final illness, which started only two weeks before her death. Mary Sloan was very frank. In fact, at times she was, in the opinion of some, brusque. But, her candor was actuated usually by her ardor in condemning what she believed to be injustice, or insincerity, and under a stern exterior she possessed a kindly and loyal heart, and performed many acts of charity. So many knew her, enjoyed conversing with her, and were friend. It will her, that her passing will leave a gap in the life of the Newton Corner district.

Auburndale Woman's Club

Auburndale Woman's Club
The members of the Auburndale Woman's Club listened to a talk on recent books, when they met at the Auburndale Club House Tuesday afternoon, November 7. The speaker, Mrs. Thomas Rudkin, was introduced by the Day chairman, Mrs. Everett Potter.
Following so soon after the Book Fair. this talk was of added interest. Mrs. Rudkin opened by telling of the quantity of new books on the market today, and declared the importance of knowing how to choose wisely, since many times titles which looked very innocent might be attached to books which might not al ways prove suitable gifts. "Grapes of Wrath" is one of the new one which some readers have condemned but which the speaker justified, since the author had really nottewed the of Wrath" is one of the new one which some readers have condemned but which the speaker justified, since the author had really portrayed the characters in the book as they actually were. "Children of God," a story of Mormon life, was a book which she considered beautifully written, and in choosing a gift for a man, she recommended "Next in Valour".

For the reader who wishes something cheerful, she advised reading "April Was When It Began", a whimsical little fantasie, which is very wholesome. Another bright and amusing story which she advised reading in "Country Lawyer."

For more serious thought, there is the new Biography of David Thoreau, the great naturalist; "Across Asia"; and her final word was to urge all women to read "Day of Our Years", an expose of the real causes of war. During the business meeting over which Mrs. Austin Fisher presided. Mr. Lyscomb Bruce made an appeal for the coming drive for the Newton Community Chest.

The Safety Problem of Bicycling, as described by Mr. Raymond A. Green, chairman of Child Education of the Newton Community Council, at the Fall Meeting of the Newton Federation on November 7th held the interested attention of Newton clubwomen at the afternoon program. Up to the first of October of this year Newton holds second place in this Safety Problem conducted by the Safety Committee, he stated. A survey is being made, and the Committee recommends that Newton have a voluntary license system. Florida, (Continued on Page 10) first play. A fumbled pass in the Fitchburg backfield set them back 14 yards and Salminen kicked, the ball going outside at the Newton 45. The local attack couldn't get started and Beatty tried to kick. The attempt was blocked and the ball rolled towards the Newton goal. Beatty was ahead of his opponents but missed a shot at the bounding oval and Fitchburg recovered on Newton's 23.

Heath dropped Salminen two yards behind the scrimmage line. Rezutticame in fast, got one hand on Lemay's ankle to slow him up while other Newton tacklers came in to assist in the tackle on a two yard gain. A pass into the Newton backfield was snared by Dobie on the 10-yard stripe. He fought his way around end but Dobie was stopped. Victory Over Fitchburg

The Newton City League footbal manpineship will be decided on the bedden of behind and pushed out of bounds at midfield. This run sparked the Newton team again. Beatty swept right tend for 7 and then went off tackle for 10 for a first down. Rezutti went through tackle for 12 as Heath threw a pretty block. A Fitchburg offside penalty put the ball on the 17 yard line. Beatty was nailed for a 5-yard loss. Rezutti got away again for 12 yards more and still another first down. Two plays netted six yards but a loss of 3 made it fourth down and seven to go. Ken Young came into the Newton backfield and prepared to try a placekiek. His try was high enough but the wind carried the ball to the right of the posts and Fitchburg put it in play on their own 20. Two plays and time was up for the half.

Third Period

where the half.

Third Period

Newton was offside on Hurley's first kickoff over the goal. On his second attempt a lateral from May to Salminen almost fooled the Newton team. The Fitchburg star got away to reach the Newton 43 before being downed. Three plays netted nine yards with Salminen getting all the gain on one play, a reverse through right tackle. On fourth down Fitchburg kicked to the Newton 20. Beatty got through tackle and was off on a 17 yards in two attempts which with Beatty's 6 made it first down at midfield. Here Newton's attack stalled again and Beatty's ensuing punt went into the end zone. On third down Fitchburg punted. MacNeil blocked the ball but the visitors recovered for a first down on their 28. Two more rushes netted six yards and again Salminen had to kick. This time he got the ball away to the 45-yard line. Beatty picked up a yard. On the next play the Newton junior got through tackle, threaded his way through the Fitchburg secondary, cut to his left and was into the clear for a touchdown gallop. Teschner's goal was just inches over the cross-bar for the point. Teschner kicked off with Fitchburg carrying back ten yards to their own 30. On third down Salminen aimed a low kick which rolled to the Newton 40. Alded by nice blocking Rezutti was shaken loose for a 27 yard gallop and a clear field ahead but Ricci was faster than the Newton back and pulled him down from behind on the Fitchburg 33. Two plays for 8 yards were partially off-set by a Newton offside penalty and an incomplete pass ended the period.

Fourth Period

Fourth Period

Fourth Period

Flagg tried a short kick which went outside at the Fitchburg 25-yard line. Salminen immediately returned the punt. The wind was at his back and the ball soared and bounded $5$ yards to the Newton goalline. Newton put it in play on the 20. Beatty, who had come in for Flagg, made an Il yard gain and Dobie one of 15 yards in a Newton march to midfield. Here Newton was stopped and Beatty had to kick against the wind. The ball went outside at the Fitchburg 40. With only 7 yards gained in three plays another Salminen punt over the goal put Newton back on their 20-yard mark again. On third down Beatty's kick went almost straight up in the air and Fitchburg took it on the Newton 20. This time a Fitchburg pass, on fourth down, clicked for the touchdown, with Carpenter completing it with a diving clutch in the end zone. Cook blocked the try for point to save Newton from a deadlocked count.

Heath ran the Fitchburg kickoff back to his 30-yard stripe but on fourth down Fitchburg took possession when Beatty's kick went outside at the 40. The visitors took to the air. Beatty knocked down one pass. Heath intercepted the next and ran it back 5 yards to the Newton 28. On the last two plays Heath and Rezutti picked up 8 yards between them to end the game.

Annual Newton-Waltham Game Tomorrow Finds Teams Evenly Matched

THE WEEK'S PREDICTIONS Little To Choose From Season's

The scholastic football season is rapidly approaching a climax with several games of deep rivalry between schools that the Newton High team has met this fall on tomorrow's calendar. Football prognostications are usually a nightmare but tomorrow's battles loom up about as follows:

The feature football attraction for this coming Sunday afternoon will be staged at two o'clock at Cabot Park when the Gath Guards meet the Berlin (Conn.) Alumni, in an interstate battle of local interest. Al Robinson, director of athletics at Berlin High School and coach of the Berlin Alumni, is a Newton Highlands youth and a graduate of Newton High School. The Guards are coached by Jimmy Cahill, salso a Newton High graduate who continued his football career at North-sastern University. During the season the locals have scored but 32 points as against 85 for their combined opponents. Taking into consideration the three teams that Waltham and Newton have both met, there is another interesting comparison. Newton has scored against Medford and Rindge, failing to do so against Arlington but failed to do so against Arlington but failed to do so against the other two. On the defense Waltham has a slightly better record, allowing but 35 points against Newton's 38. eastern University.

These possible losses are offset by the return of two linesmen who have shown their value throughout the seater of the son. These are Bill Boyer and Clark Fisher. Boyer has been taking light practice this week, following a Rindge game injury and may play if needed at times against Waltham. A veterant tackle, he has been one of the bulwarks of the Newton line, although warks of the Newton line, although Fraine and Healy have proved satisfactory understudies. Clark Fisher will be back again at his guard berth following a week's lay-off because of the grippe. Until counted out of the Fitchburg game, Fisher was one of Coach MacDowell's dependables. The Newton mentor plans to starf practically the same line-up as against Fitchburg with Fisher back in his berth at guard with John McNeil at the other guard berth. Kalousdian and either Fraine or Healy will be in the tackle positions with Woodruff at centre. Teschner and Bob Beatty will continue on the wings. Captain Brooks Heath will quarterback a backfield which will have Joe Beatty and Tony Regutti at the halves and Gil Doble at fullback.

Hughes offered arguments similar to those presented by the Boston & Worcester Street Railway at the public hearing held on the petition.

The recount of votes in the contest for Ward Alderman in Ward 3 was held on Saturday afternoon. The following changes resulted from the figures given by the election officers in that Ward. The original returns credited Cronin were—Precinct 1, 564; Precinct 2, 316; Precinct 3, 674. In the recount he received 565,262 and 672 respectively, these three precincts reducing his total from 1554 to 1499. The original returns gave Tiffin 571 votes in Precinct 1; 663 in Precinct 2; 178 in Precinct 3. The recount showed that Tiffin received 569 votes in Precinct 3; increasing his total from 1412 to 1469.

Changing times have brought much talk on the subject of wives and children whose earnings supplement family income, but a study of 8.784 small-city and village families in Weshington Oragon and Califes o, 104 small-city and village families in Washington, Oregon and California, reports 9 out of 10 husbands as the chief breadwinners and 7 out of 10 the sole support of their families. Husbands provided nine-tenths of the earnings that supported these families.

There was nothing unusual about these families, says a bulletin by the federal bureau of home economics. All of them included a husband and wife, both native-born. In the four cities—Klamath Falls, Eugene, and Astoria, Ore., and Olympia, Wash.—one-half of the families studied had incomes of $1,555 or less. In the 12 Washington and Oregon villages the lower one-half of the incomes were below $1,024, and below $1,355 in the 12 villages in California. California.

Henry I. Morrison of 89 Evelyn rd., Waban, has filed a petition with the City Clerk asking that a bus line be established between Waban and Cleveland circle, Brookline, via Beaton st. A bus line now is operated between the two places, but it is routed over Woodward st. fom Waban to Newton Highlands, and thence via Newton Centre. Officials of the Middlesex & Boston Street Railway say they will provide the new line if people of Waban will provide sufficiently and village families in this region was about 3.5 persons. sisted of three or four persons, three included husband and wife only, and the remaining two had five or more family members. Housing costs for renters were not high—about 6 out of 10 of all the families that rented their homes paid less than $20 a month. Rent took much less than the traditional one-fifth of total income. Families in the upper income brackets had even larger shares of their incomes lest after rents were paid.

questioned its legality. He asked if the City Solicitor had approved the proposed amendment. Alderman Colby inquired if the ordinance followed a precedent established by other cities. City Solicitor Bartlett replied that the restraining amendment had received his approval, that the Board of Alderman Colby then raised the objection that to compel apartment buildings to provide garaging facilities, might make the construction costs prohibitive. Alderman Rawson replied that garages need not be built, as the amended ordinance allows for parking facilities as an alternative.

Alderman Hoffman said he had never heard of the proposed amendment to the ordinance before, so he most qualified to vote on it. A roll call vote was taken on the amended ordinance and 20 of the 21 Alderman present voted in favor, including Alderman Hoffman refrained from voting.

throughout the world, on Sunday, November 19.

The Golden Text is: "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?" (I Corinthians 6:19).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you. Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink: nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" (Matthew 6:24, 25).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "If we follow the command of our Master, "Take no thought for your life," we shall never depend on bodily conditions, structure, or economy, but we shall be masters of the body, dictate its the tagent of the Parish are invited.

WHY TAKE BLOOD PRESSURE?

There is no diagnostic procedure which gives the doctor more information about his middle-aged patient than an accurate blood pressure determination.

The trained physician can learn the condition of the arteries, heart action, and detect symptoms of many diseases, only successfully treated in their early stages, such as Bright's disease, toxic goiter, a tendency toward apoplexy.

Low blood pressure is not particularly frequent or serious, and is an indication of some debilitating condition. It is also true of high blood pressure that it is a symptom - not a disease. The way to cure high blood pressure is to prevent it by regular general examinations, so that any beginning increase may be detected in time to do something preference for islands is perhaps the fact that islands provide protec-tion from some of the predatory ani-mals that take a heavy toll of nest-ing birds. Sometimes birds select only slight elevations along a lake-ther for their acting site. only signt elevations along a lake-shore for their nesting sites. Musk-rat houses scarcely can be called islands, yet they seem to qualify with the birds. At bird sanctuary, near Battle Creek, one may see numerous duck and goose nests on described results beyong In the deserted muskrat houses.

deserted muskrat houses. In the Bear river in Oregon, four-fifths of the Canada geese nests had their foundations provided by muskrats.

Men who are trying to restore areas for waterfowl may take advantage of this trait. E. A. McIlhenny, whose bird city on Avery island, Louisiana, is a famous sanctuary, was among the first to make island-building an important part of attracting birds. He has built more than 30 islands especially for herons.

The United States bureau of biological survey had made island-building one of its specialties in the development of refuge areas. Islands are formed when areas are flooded. Results of this sort may be seen on the new Seney Refuge in the Upper Peninsula. On the Bear river refuge, machinery was being used to finish up the end of a 1,000-foot island when birds began nesting on the other end. This seems to be a good illustration of the value of nesting islands on bird refuges. refuges.

Natural Gas in America

Discovered by Accident ages before it was put to practical purposes in this country. It appeared as leakage from gas-bearing strata through crevices in the ground, and when lighted, usually by accident, was often worshiped as a manifestician of forested these manifestation of a fire god. thus known in India, in China and in Persia.

In the United States the first discovery of natural gas by drilling was in Ohio and West Virginia in the early Nineteenth century, when surprised salt makers struck gas while sinking shallow wells for salt. Rufus Stone, one of the first operators in the salt-making business at McConnellsville, Pa., while drilling for salt, struck a reservoir of natural gas strongly impregnated with sulphur, which caused the driller to exclaim they had "drilled through to hell." At first the well was considered a failure, but the gas was later put to work to boil the water for the salt making. This use of it is said to have continued for 40 years.

Other such accidental discoveries of natural gas were occasional, and in 1826 the first use of it for light was made at Fredonia, N. Y. A hundred street lights were fed there by gas which had been discovered by seepage through a mill stream. first place to be piped for the use of natural gas for domestic purposes was Titusville, Pa., in 1872.

Hot Mediterranean Wind Aids in Cork Formation

Aids in Cork Formation
The wind blows fierce and hot in the Mediterranean during the dry season, and that is why most of the world's cork comes from Portugal, Spain and north Africa. For the cork trees there, getting the full hot blasts, in self-defense thicken the outer bark as insulation. And the result is cork, used in linoleum, insulation board, baseball centers,
badminton balls, floats, fishing bobbers and life preservers.

badminton balls, floats, fishing bobbers and life preservers.

Cork is industrially important because it can be compressed like no other solid. A cubic inch, under 14,000 pounds pressure in a press, spreads sidewise only a quarter inch. Remove the pressure and it will regain 95 per cent of its height. The secret is in its remarkable cellular structure, which makes cork different from most other fibrous vegetable material. The cells of cork are built in the form of 14 cells surrounding one cell. Each cell is cork are built in the form of 14 cells surrounding one cell. Each cell is filled with air, and the thin walls are cemented together with natural gum or resin. A cubic inch of cork has about 300,000,000 such cells. Compress cork, and the air in the cells resist. Because of the ear, cork is light. Because of the sealing between each cells resist. between each cell, cork does not transfer heat, so is good for insu-lating and sound-proofing; because it is resilient, it minimizes vibra-tion, hence it is useful in machinery.

In 20 years a cork tree has an outer bark an inch thick. It cannot be stripped again for nine years. The quality improves with each stripping, and the average tree is good for 14 strippings, nine years apart.

Modern Beach Footwear Designed by Japanese

Designed by Japanese
From the south of France has spread to Miami beach and Malibu a fashion of footwear with lightweight soles three inches thick to keep the feet off the hot sands. A new vogue in the West, it is centuries old in Japan. The geta, as Japan's stilted clog is called, dates back to the Eighth century in literature, but first achieved widespread popularity in the Tokugawa period, which began in the Seventeenth century.

Nowadays it takes a big shop to contain anything like a fair selection of the many kinds of geta. The fineweather geta, called koma-geta, is carved from a single block of wood, and for sole and heel has two thick, square supports called ha ("teeth"). Taka-geta ("high" geta) have thin wood insoles to make the wearer appear taller.

sidewalk. A geta has two straps, which radiate from a peg between the big toe and its neighbor to two points on either side of the heel. This calls for the sort of sock worn by the sandaled races of north Africa and manufactured in the United States by health concerns that is and manufactured in the United States by health concerns—that is, one that has a separate compartment for the big toe. These socks, called tabi, may be of cotton, wool, silk or other material, are ankle high only, and are worn by persons of either sex.

Old Shells Recovered

Unexploded shells are still being found in the war zone of France 18 years after the World war. A private company which was engaged six years ago to hunt and destroy them is still actively operating with quarters in Coucy-le-Chateau near the emplacement of the "Big Bertha," which shelled Paris. Besides doing its own hunting, the company is informed of the accidental finding of shells. It sends its special trucks, fitted for handling explosives, and the shell is taken to the exploding ground. It has responded to 4,320 reports of found shells, which have led to its trucks bringing in 1,450,000 tons of "duds." During the same period it has destroyed where they were found over 167,000 tons of shells considered non-transportable. And still undestroyed at its two fields are 236 794 tons of shells. Origin of Siren

Sirens were invented to measure sirens were invented to measure sound vibrations, but it was found that by altering the mechanism slightly, they could be turned into terrific squawkers. Now they warn of danger through their shrieking tones. Police are ambulances and Police cars, ambulances and fire trucks have made them familiar. Sweet but deadly music character Sweet but deadly music character-ized the sirens from which these present-day instruments get their names. In Greek mythology sirens were sea nymphs who lured sailors to destruction by their beautiful singing.

Ten and more years ago the subject of apartment houses gave residents of Newton considerable concern. They had observed how Brook line had evolved from a very attractive community of detached houses and large estates into a district largely filled with unattractive apartment houses, Although Newton opponents of apartment houses were assured that the rigid building code of this city practically prohibited the construction of apartment buildings, in order to further safeguard Newton against the intrusion of apartment buildings, in order to further safeguard Newton against the intrusion of apartment buildings can only be erected in general residence zones. So, the then Board of Aldermen rezoned the city. Apartment buildings can only be erected in general residence zones, thus barring apartment buildings except in the comparatively small areas left in business and general residence zones. The writer was at that time an Alderman from Ward I, and a member of the Claims & Rules Committee, which designated the areas to remain in general residence zones. The writer, and Alderman Murray, then member of the committee from Ward 7, were the only committee members who recommended any appreciable areas in their Wards for retention in general residence zones, with the evective department at a salexputy of $2500 or less can handle the purchases. rinis piece of property had deteriorated and a leading Newton realtor at that time had stated that he planned to erect a high-class apartment building on it. Last year two buildings, containing small apartments were erected on this lot without any provision being made for garaging or off-street parking of automobiles of these two buildings. In the past two years other apartment buildings have been erected in this city similarly lacking such facilities.

Ten years ago it was the sentiment of the Aldermen that no permit should be granted for the erection of an apartment building unless adequate provisions were made for garaging or off-street parking of automobiles of the committed on this matter. So, the present don't on the Claims & Rules Committee) and amendment to the zoning ordinance which compels provisions for adequate garaging or parking of automobiles as a requisite before any permit will be granted for the building of an apartment house in this city. Using a public street as a garage or for all-night parking is an imposition on neighbors, handicaps the fighting of fires, and prevents the Street Department from properly lowing snow off streets.

Another reason for the increase in "hit and run" fatalities in this State is—that when the dastards guilty of such a crime are caught and convicted, they are not invariably given prison sentences, as they should be. And the charge of manslaughter which is regularly brought against motorists responsible for fatal automobile accidents when reckless driving is indicated, rarely or ever is pressed. Either this charge should be definitely abolished against motorists involved in fatal accidents, or it should be prosecuted when the evidence warrants it.

Parlor penologists and others who advocate ultra sympathetic treatment for prisoners can't accuse former Sheriff Dowd of having been too severe with the inmates of Charles Street jail.

If it isn't a Pontiac it isn't a"Torpedo

NO, "Torpedo styling" isn't a term like "four-wheel brakes" or "safety glass." It doesn't denote a development that's industry-wide-as yet! It's the colorful phrase

PONTIAC SIX PRICES BEGIN AT . . . $783 *delivered at Pontiac, Michigan. Transportation based on vail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment—white sidewall tires and accessories— extra. Prices subject to change without notice. PONTIAC "TORPEDO" PRICES BEGIN AT $1016 that America adopted to describe the boldly different beauty of the biggest, smartest, most luxurious Pontiac ever built.

Without that sparkling jewel-like front-end and its cresting Silver Streak-without those flaring fenders fore and that artful taper aft, it could only be "just another car." But NOT A PONTIAC "TORPEDO"-with its rich interior luxury and the thrilling, thrifty eightperformance for which Pontiac is renowned.

So when you can't resist the urge to own an eight with "Torpedo" styling, come in and get the only car that has it-the leader of Pontiac's 1940 line of 17 sixes and eights ... all supremely smart and brilliantly beautiful!

Newton Community Club

The talk given by Cornelia Stratton Parker at the Newton Community Club meeting on Thursday, November 9, was greatly enjoyed by a large audience. Mrs. Parker stated that her subject probably should be changed to "Women in This Changing Social Disorder," as there have never been such unbalanced times as the present. She urged women to study and to learn both sides of a problem, and not to express themselves too vehemently until qualified to do so. She said everyone is too prone to read only what until qualified to do so. She said everyone is too prone to read only what pleases them, and that they should read books, magazines, and newspapers that express opinions that are contrary to their our convictions, in order to see the other side, although they do not need to believe what they read or to talk about it.

Mrs. Parker's special prayer at the present time is for strength to keep from passing judgment on situations and persons until facts are known, and for help in being a wise and kindly person with racial and religious tolerance.

During the business meeting con-ducted by Mrs. Wallace Wales, no-tices were given of the first meeting of the Juniors; and of the Rummage

First Prince of Wales Named 600 Years Ago

Since the title prince of Wales was Since the title prince of Wales was created by Edward I, in the year 1301, for his eldest son, there have been 20 princes of Wales, including the men who afterward became Edward VII, George V and Edward VIII. The late George V became prince of Wales when his father succeeded to the throne in 1901. The title may be bestowed on the eldest surviving son of the monarch, or on his grandson if he is the nearest heir. It is not inherited but is ex-tinguished when the holder of the title becomes king or if he dies hefore the ruler.

title becomes king or if he dies before the ruler.

Wales was ruled by Welsh princes from the Tenth to the Thirteenth century. The last of these was Llewelyn, who was compelled to submit to Edward I in 1277. On Llewelyn's death in 1282 the title ceased but Edward revived it for his eldest surviving son and heir, later Edward II. According to legend, King Edward I in conquering Wales promised the people that if they ceased resistance he would give them a native-born prince who could not speak a word of English. Two years after Llewelyn's death, this son of Edward I was born in Carnarvon in Wales. It was not until 1301, however, that the title was bestowed on him and by that time he could certainly speak English.

Phonetics of Egyptians Revealed in Documents

Egyptian, a tongue heard from be-fore the days of the pyramids down to the Middle ages but unspoken for the last 900 years, is giving up the secrets of sounds familiar to Tutank-hamen, Moses and his followers and

While many of the writings of the Egyptians have been preserved from the past, on stone and papyrus, the spoken language was replaced by Greek during the years of Greek and Roman power. It was revived later and as Coptic it persisted until the Tenth century. Scholars have been able to translate the written language with exactitude, but have never been able to do more than

The clues to the Egyptian spoken word are being traced at the University of Michigan by Prof. William H. Worrell, specialist in Coptic. "Copt" is the name now applied to the Egyptian people since their adoption of Christianity, although Christianity is not at present the dominant religion of Egypt. Centuries ago, while Egyptian was still spoken, these people developed a method of writing Greek in Egyptian, for everyday practical purposes and to translate Greek religious texts.

To do this the Copts took the Greek alphabet, added six Egyptian sounds and used the combination as a Coptic alphabet to transcribe the sounds and used the combination as a Coptic alphabet to transcribe the current language of the time. In his detective work for forgotten sounds Professor Worrell uses the science of phonetics, which tells what sounds may be formed in the human mouth and throat and how, and a broad study of all the dialects of Coptic Arabic and Greek both of the present and as they were spoken and written in ancient days. By starting with sounds used today in and written in ancient days. By starting with sounds used today in related languages, closely observing spelling variations and words borrowed from other tongues, it is possible to trace individual sounds backward in time by processes now known to be scientifically accurate, finally arriving at forms silent for finally arriving at forms silent for centuries.

President's Hobbies

Usually Athletic Type Presidents' hobbies have been usually of the athletic type rather, than the collecting type. Franklin D. Roosevelt's collections of ship models and stamps are well known;
his athletic hobbies are now confined to swimming and horseback riding. Hoover, like Cleveland, enjoyed fishing as a hobby. Harding's hobby was golf, though like Taft he also enjoyed watching baseball.

Wilson enjoyed horseback riding but among his other hobbies was a passion for vaudeville entertainment. Theodore Roosevelt's athletic hobbies included big game hunting, horsemanship and tennis. Among earlier Presidents, perhaps Jefferson had the most notable hobbies. These included all the natural sciences, invention, arboriculture, etc. It is claimed that he invented the revolving chair. Washington's great hobby was farming. Tree culgreat hobby was farming. Tree culture was also a hobby of John Quincy Adams. Benjamin Harrison enjoyed duck hunting. U. S. Grant was addicted to strong cigars and light novels.

Founding of Carnegie

The Carnegie institution of Washington was founded on January 28, 1902, by Andrew Carnegie, when he gave to a board of trustees an endowment of registered bonds of the par value of $10,000,000. To this fund he added $2,000,000 on December 10, 1907, and $10,000,000 on January 19, 1911. In addition, the income of a reserve fund of about $3,000,000, accumulated in accordance with the founder's specifications in 1911, is now available for general use, and there has been a recent addition of $5,000,000 to the endowment fund by grant from the recent addition of $5,000,000 to the endowment fund by grant from the Carnegie corporation of New York. The institution was originally or-ganized as the Carnegie institution but was reincorporated as the Caract of congress approved April an act o 28, 1904.

Beautiful Turkish Prison
Turkey gives the lie to the old saying that "there never was a beautiful prison." Its most famous prison, a little island, Imrali, in the Sea of Marmora, is an Eden on earth. This tract of green hills covered with flowers is jail to 750 men but so idyllic is the life there that only two warders are needed. The only two warders are needed. The men are paid about 25 cents a day and put to work farming and making roads. The prison, founded in 1935, tries to restore its inmates to society as useful and peaceful citizens.

Bali Customs

Bali Customs
People who visit Bali may observe these facts: The pig supplies meat, the cow being sacred; rice is the staple food; girls are being ordered to wear more clothing, but are not obeying; dancing is the national pastime; no beggars, no child marriages; none but natives may own real estate, and Bali rhymes with holly.

More Burglars Given Probation

A general meeting of the Newton Junior Chamber of Commerce was held Tuesday night at the Newton Y. M. C. A. President David Buxbaum presided and announced that the following committees had been established: Safety, Program, Personnel, Holiday Activities, By-Laws, Public Relations and Membership.

The guest speaker was Charles Raymond Cabot, a member of the School Committee, who spoke in behalf of the Newton Chapter of the American Red Cross. His interesting talk, which touched on some of the lesser known activities of this organization, was thoroughly enjoyed.

Tuesday night, December 5, was announced as the Charter Presentation Night. The principal speaker is to be Fred B. Linton of Washington, D. C., National Public Affairs Secretary of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce. The City Officials are to be guests at the banquet, which will be a splendid opportunity for all aggressive men in this city to learn of the worthwhile purposes of a Junior Chamber.

Workers At Final Meeting Told Auto Crash Kills Dr. S. M. Roberts

For the closing meeting of the intensive period of the Newton Community Chest Campaign more than a thousand campaign workers packed the auditorium of the Newton High School to hear final reports of campaign progress and witness a hilarious minstrel show highlighted with skits about campaign events and personnel. Reports from all divisions of the campaign Wednesday night showed that 90.3 per cent of the $199,605 goal had been subscribed.

Campaign Chairman William V. M. Fawcett congratulated the workers on the progress made but urged them to continue their solicitation until every prospect had been seen. "We close this intensive period of the campaign," he said, "with our work not quite complete. It has been impossible within the 11 days of the campaign for workers to finish their tasks. When our canvass is complete I am confident we will achieve the additional 9.7 per cent needed to reach our goal."

Vocational School At Lower Falls Helpful To Many Boys and Girls

Suggestion Is Made That It Be Removed From Hamilton School To Old Franklin School At West Newton

Want City To Sell Vacant Land Owned

Charles B. Jones, president of the Newton Taxpayers Association, has sent a letter to Mayor Childs in which he recommends that the city publish a list of the numerous vacant lots of land owned by the City of Newton, and that the list be distributed to real estate brokers or a committee of citizens in an effort to sell the 264 lots to which Newton has title. Most of these lots of land were acquired in past years by reason of non-payment of taxes and their assessed value totals about $256,000$. Another suggestion offered by Jones is that these parcels of land might be sold at public auction. A similar suggestion was made by Sinclair Weeks when he was Mayor of Newton. From time to time offers have been made for the purchase of city-owned land by individuals, but in many cases these offers have been refused because the prices offered were considered too low by the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Jones contends that if the many lots of land will be sold by the city, Newton will receive taxes from those who buy such properties.

Agitation by residents of Newton Lower Falls, led by a group residing in the newly developed section in the vicinity of St. Mary st. and other streets near Grove st. is directed toward forcing the removal of the Sweton Frade School building on Grove st. to the abandoned, old Franklin School on River st., West Newton. The General Vocational Department of the Newton Trade School was or to place pupils in a wide range of occupational activity, it provides various types of vocational training. Pupils are selected with care, as otherwise the school would defeat the objective for which it was created. They are normal pupils of average intelligence, tested and approved by the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Jones contends that if the many lots of land will be sold by the city, Newton will receive taxes from those who buy such properties.

THANKSGIVING

Another Thanksgiving Day is approaching. Next week Thursday the citizens of Massachusetts will pause to give thanks for the Pilgrim fathers who instituted the original Thanksgiving festivities in token of the blessing that life had given them in a new world. Today as we look about us there are many discouragements, troubles and fears in the world. In many ways the outlook for civilization looks dark indeed. Yet hope and faith sustain us. Despite the clouds of war, the practical slavery that exists in the dictator countries, and despite the trials and problems which confront us as individuals there is still much to be thankful for. We still have freedom and liberty, we still have the right of free speech and we have the hope that America may ever remain the powerful force that will carry civilization to new heights in the years

STARTS MOVEMENT FOR BETTER MAIL SERVICE

Editor of The Graphic:

Editor of The Graphic:

"The superintendent of the U. S. Railway Mall Service has ordered the establishment of a railway postoffice to run from Boston to Boston via the Newton Circuit Branch of the B. & A. It will be of great advantage in the transmission of mall between the various villages of this city."

The foregular tiem appears in your transmission of mall between the various villages of this city."

The foregoing item appeared in your newspaper of a week ago under the "Fifty Years Ago" heading. but also with outside points.

How well I recollect the almost perfect performance of the railway postoffice referred to in your news item. One could then mail a letter at any of the postoffices within the Newtons and it would go direct to its destination in some other part of the city without making a trip into Boston and out again. West and south bound letters went from the Newtons direct rather than via Newton Centre and then Boston, as is now the case. Hours are lost in this way and such delays often spell loss of business and profits. Certainly the government does not gain by toting mail matter over indirect routes rather via the shortest one. My own experience proves that two letters mailed at Newton at the same time, one addressed to New York and the other, the New York letter reaches. to some one of the other New-the New York letter reaches setimation first. Such service is te unless the delay happens to trouble for either the sender e recipient. Then it becomes a

This week we looked at a copy of a pictorial publication which comes out a couple of times each month and panders to sensationalism. It was one of the most flagrant examples of propaganda that we have yet seen. In fact, it was so obviously propaganda, that it should not only defeat the purpose of those taking this means to make the U. S. Conference On Industrial Problems

The State Federation division of In-The State Federation division of Industry, of which Mrs. Lars A. Svenson is chairman, has arranged a Conference for Monday, December 4, to be held at the Hotel Statler, Boston. from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Registration and Luncheon fee combined is $1.75 and luncheon reservation should be made before Saturday, December 2, with Mrs. A. Ford Hanscom, 48 Commonwealth ave., Boston. The Registration fee alone is 50 cents. Mrs. Newman Page, 42 Trefton drive, East Braintree, will be in charge of Registration.

The many problems confronting In-The many problems confronting Industry are of deep interest in these trying days of readjustments, and speakers upon these subjects will present many vital facts to their hearers, including economic forces, which are more powerful factors than even the political system; unemployment which as it diminishes should lessen labor disturbances; increased wages; peace hopes; interests of the farmers, the victim of crop uncertainties; fluctuating markets; and consumer interests.

The meeting is open to men who may wish to hear the excellent speakers secured for this discussion, and the place of meeting and time of the luncheon have been arranged so that men may take advantage of this opportunity.

they yielded ground grudgingly. Fourth down and a foot to go Rezutti and Heath backed up a solid Newton line to stop Johnstone's plunge and Newton took the ball on downs. Joe Beatty was rushed on his kick from the end zone. The pigskin veered off to the left to go outside at the Newton 13 and glving the visitors another golden opportunity.

Newton hastened down to the Newton goal line to ask and discuss the official ruling on the play when a photographer snapped his picture. A member of the Newton coaching staff approached the cameraman and asked that he expose the negative to the light, which the latter refused to do. The intervention of a local policeman prevented the further incitement of anger upon the part of those involved. The incident, trivial in nature, would never have been noticed had it occurred in many other communities.

Lining up for the third-period kick-curred in many other communities.

Lining up for the third-period kickoff, Newton fans were amazed to find that Bud Hurley had replaced Brooks Heath, the Newton leader having missed but a very few minutes of play during the entire season. Word soon spread around that the Newton staiwart had probably received a brain concussion and had played the entire second period without remembering anything that occurred. Fortunately the injury was not as severe as first feared and no serious aftermath occurred.

feared and no serious aftermath occurred.

Rezutti's runback of the kickoff went to the Newton 30. Beatty spun for six. Rezutti got away on a tackle thrust. breaking wide on a $8.yard run into the clear with Carter and Frary overhauling him at the Waitham 26. Four passing miscues again disappointed the aroused Newton fans with the final toss going into the end zone and giving Waltham the ball on their 20-yard marker. Later a punt gave Newton the ball again and a pass interception by MacDonald set up another Waltham march. MacDonald got away to the Newton 35 on the interception with Bob Beatty and MacNeil dropping him before he raced into the clear. A Frary to Manning toss for 12 yards and a Frary to Johnstone pass for 13 swept Waltham to the 10-yard marker but another score was averted when Manning dropped a pass on the 5-yard line and Newton eventually took the ball on downs. Following an exchange of kicks, Newton again got into Waltham territory on a brotherly act of the Beattys with Joe tossing to Bob for a 24-yard gain. Brother Bob received a bloody nose and was forced to retire. A subsequent Joe Beatty pass was intercepted by co-captain Goguen and lateraled to Johnstone who dodged his way to the Newton 38 as the period ended.

The final period was a standoff ended.

The final period was a standoff with each team making a couple of first downs. The visitors once again got inside the Newton 15 but an incompleted pass into the end zone on fourth down halted them. A few plays before the game ended, Goguen intercepted another Newton pass for a short runback to the Newton 27. Three plays later time expired with ree plays later time expired with visitors crossing the 20-yard stripe owners' Association, of which he is president, held in Boston last Friday. It was one of the most outstanding meetings ever held by the associa-meetings ever held by the association.

Mr. Brannen is just about to complete the fourth important stage in the growth in his business since it was founded twenty-one years ago, and the modernization of the plant and practical rebuilding provides for increased demands and adds comfort to the many employes. Two features which have so marked the progress of Brannen's Laundry are the use of artesian well water and the speed of delivery. With five wells supplying the water it is rendered velvety soft by filtering through a zeolite bed. About four hundred thousand gallons per week are used.
Mr. Brannen has evolved a method of delivery that assures promptness for one and all.

No Place for Portly People

No Place for Portly People
One of the most famous English taverns associated with Charles Dickens is the Six Jolly FellowshipPorters of "Our Mutual Friend." It was the favorite resort of Rogue Riderhood and Gaffer Hexam, and still stands today in Limehouse.
Now it is known as the Grapes;
in Dickens' time it was the Bunch of Grapes. It is no wider than its front door, recalling Dickens' description that it was like a "handle of a flat iron set upright on its broadest end."

Methuselah's Diet

Centenarians in Jugoslavia are convinced that Methuselah must have lived on cheese, for they already have a good start on the record set by the Biblical ancient. A recent census showed that over 2,000 Jugoslavs have passed the 100-year mark, and since the staple food of these people is sour milk and goat cheese, there seems to be some basis for their contention.

Turtle Great Fighters

The snapping turtle is a bad customer, preying not only on game fish, but on the young of waterfowl and muskrats. After a snapping turtle has passed its first year, it has almost no natural enemies. Skunks, digging up the eggs of the snapping turtle, normally keep down the species, the National Wildlife federation reports.

No 'K' in Latin

There was a letter K in the original Latin language, and it appears in the earliest Latin inscriptions. It was later dropped from the al-phabet and replaced by C. The K does not appear in classical Latin except in the abbreviations for Kal-endae and for the proper name Kaeso.

Imperfect Score

Mother Shipton, early in the Fif-teenth century, predicted modern steamships, trains and airplanes, telegraph, radio, automobiles and submarine travel. The good woman went sadly astray on one point, how-ever; she predicted the "end of the world in 1881!"

Valuable Pennies

If the burglars who stole 2,500 cents from a liquor store at Wheatland, Wyo., looked through them carefully they found one or two worth a lot more than their face value. Henry Sommer, the store owner, said some of the pennies were of issues valuable to collectors.

African Diamonds

African Diamonds
The first discovery of diamonds in Africa was made in 1867 by Dr. W. G. Atherstone, who identified as a diamond a pebble obtained from a child on a farm on the banks of the Orange river and brought by a trader to Grahamstown. It was bought for 500 pounds and displayed in the Paris exhibition of that year. In 1869 a stone weighing 83½ carats was found near the Orange river; this was purchased by the earl of Dudley for 25,000 pounds and became famous as the Star of South Africa.

Frederick's Prophecy
Frederick the Great, of Prussia, most resplendent ruler of his time, had a prophetic dream. He saw a star suddenly traverse the whole heavens, flaming with a brightness that put his crown to shame. He so wondered at the incident that he asked members of his household to note the date. It was August 16, 1769. Later it developed that it had also been the birthday of Napoleon Bonaparte. also been t Bonaparte.

The Devil's Revenge

The Devil's Revenge
Cologne cathedral, today one of the most famous in the world, was against their eight opponents for against their eight opponents for a better than 10-point per game average, while Newton's 32 points in nine affairs is little more than the three points a field goal would bring. On the other side of the picture, Brookline has allowed its combined opponents but 30 points, or a little less than four digits per game, while the Newton opposition has reached nearly into three figures, 97 to be exact. But the strength of the opposition must be taken into consideration. Newton's defeats have been at the hands of such teams as Arlington, The Well Baby Conference conducted by the Newton District Nursing Association at the Bowen School, Thompsonville, for a number of years has been discontinued.

In place of this a conference has been opened at the Rice School, Newton Centre, and is being held each Thursday from 3 to 4 p. m.

Mothers in this section as well as Thompsonville are cordially invited to bring bables under two years of age for weighing and consultation.

When a private physician is in charge of the baby his services are not interfered with in any way. His approval is asked for baby's attendance.

Largest Norumbega School
In Recent Years

One of the largest groups of church school workers to attend the Fall Training School of the Norumbega Council of Religious Education in recent years has been meeting at Second Church, West Newton, for the past five Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30. When the school closes next Tuesday, November 28, the one hundred eighty-nine registered students will complete an unusually successful series of sessions. Twentyseven churches have been represented, and the experiment of running first series (six-period) courses and second series (twelve-period) courses side by side has worked out successfully. The closing assembly period will consist of a communion service in the Young People's Chapel of the church led by the Rev. Martin L. Goslin of the Newton North Congregational Church.

pose. The petition did not give any reasons why the Vocational Department should be removed. It merely stated that the signers wanted the trade school removed at once.

On October 23rd a group from the Lower Falls Improvement Association attended a meeting of the School Committee to present their case. Included among those who spoke at this hearing in favor of removing the Vocational Department from the Hamilton School were Howard Lewis of St. Mary st., president of the Lower Falls Improvement Association; and John McGlennon of Lafayette st., secretary of the association; Norman Paterson of Grove st., and Carl Pescosolido of Concord st. Mr. Lewis and Mr. McGlennon have resided in the city but a few years, and the former told the School Committee members that a number of the residents of the recently developed district near the Hamilton School might move from the city unless the Vocational Department will be taken from that school building. Mayor Childs was also present at the meeting on invitation of the School Committee. He concurred with the remonstrants and favored the immediate removal of the Vocational Department. The remonstrants argued that the school department should rent a building and Supt. of Schools Warren and members of the School Committee pointed out that it would be Impractical to do this because of problems involved in moving and setting up the equipment used at the school, which school authorities assert were in session.

of products produced by what was once America's greatest industry. As a result thousands of former workers are looking for employment.

Even by making the most extreme assumptions Mr. Hayward states that any shortage of timber for lumber and allied products could be only at some far distant time. What is more likely is that there will always be sufficient forest in the United States to meet all reasonable needs and that the immediate and pressing problem, according to Hayneeds and that the immediate and pressing problem, according to Hayward, is that of expansion of markets for forest products, as without adequate markets our forest resources would be larger an economic waste. Moreover, timber as a national resource is an exception, since it is reproducible. Timber should therefore he considered as since it is reproducible. Timber should therefore be considered as a crop, and unless it can be utilized the crop ceases to be an important asset.

Indians Smooth Cheeked

The beard of the American Indian, like that of the oriental, is naturally very sparse. Most male Indians would have a slight mustache and some beard on the chin if they permitted them to grow, but side whiskers are usually absent. It was almost a religion with the Indian to have a smooth face. Francis Parkman says when he was among the Sioux he "made careful use of the razor, an operation which no man will neglect who desires to gain the razor, an operation which no man will neglect who desires to gain the good opinion of Indians." When Father Garnier, the French missionary among the Hurons, showed the Indians a picture of the Savior the sight of the beard threw them into convulsions of laughter.

'Human Cannon Balls'

Need Rigid Training Need Kigid Iraining Cliff Gregg of Plymouth, Wis., who trains human cannon balls, has disclosed some of the secrets of the breath-taking trick which thrills circus and exhibition crowds.
Pointing out that the human projectile experiences a few thrills of his own each time he's shot from the cannon, Gregg said:
"The performer enters a shell that is shaped according to his body di-

the cannon, Gregg said:

"The performer enters a shell that is shaped according to his body dimensions. Compressed air shoots the shell violently to the muzzle, which springs back and ejects the performer.

"Simultaneously, an explosion is set off in another chamber to produce an artillery fire effect."

However, the performer must play his part to perfection if the trick is to be culminated successfully.

"As soon as the performer is released he thrusts his head up," Gregg said, "and starts a climbing motion with his arms and legs.

"If he permits his head to drop he will fall short of the net."

He added:

He added:
"Hitting the net is no simple matter. He lands with such force that the net frequently is torn."
Gregg has built and sold five of the cannons which shoot men—not at them. The guns are designed to hurl a man approximately 150 feet. hurl a man approximately 150 feet.

The net in which the men land is 50 feet long, Gregg pointed out, because no two performers are alike. "A slight movement in the actions of the performer will cause the distance he is hurled to vary," he explained.

He declared a man could not be thrown more than 200 feet—"The landing would kill him."

Despite the danger of the profession, Gregg never lacks candidates for the job of human cannon ball. He said he has a drawer full of applications from young men who think that a firm back and a strong heart are the only requirements. "What they do not understand," he added, "is that the requisites are familiarity with the mechanism, agility and above all presence of mind."

Superstition Mountain
The name Superstition mountain is given to a peak east of Phoenix, Ariz., because of the Indian legends surrounding it, writes a correspondent to the Detroit News. One of these stories related to a great flood these stories relates to a great flood, similar to that given in the Bible. A Dutchman's mine there was formerly owned by a Spanish ranchman in Sonora, Mexico. Jacob Walz, known as "Snowbeard the Dutchman," murdered three of the Spaniard's heirs and stole the mine. He worked it alone for 10 years or so and then revealed its secret site to his nephew, whom he afterward killed. Other persons, to the number of eight, were shot while trying to find it. He died in 1892 without revealing the mine's location. A bronze tablet marks "Snowbeard's" grave on the mountain. these stories relates to a great flood, grave on the mountain.
